

REPUBLICANS SHOW UP WELL IN ROLL

COUNTY SUPERVISORS IN SESSION TODAY ANNOUNCED PARTY AFFILIATIONS.

DEBATE OVER ELECTION JUDGES

Yesterday Afternoon's Session Waxed Warm Over Legal Points Involved in Appointments.

Republicans in the audience at the meeting of the board of supervisors this afternoon were heard humming "Rally 'Round the Flag Boys" when in the appointment of judges of election for the ensuing year the members of the board declared their party affiliations. The roll shows 13 republicans, 6 democrats, 3 progressives, one who "voted for Roosevelt" and one, the chairman, who was not asked.

The following declared themselves:

Republicans.
Morris Cook,
W. J. Edwards
Chas. Heibenthal
John J. Wagner
C. Gross
Luther Burket
O. B. Anderson
J. M. McCleary
Ralph Hanson
Kyle Miller

Progressives.
John W. Banks
H. Grant Dysart
Charles Ewald.

Democrats.
Joseph Bauer
E. J. Mannion
Austin O'Malley
F. G. Emmert
John P. Drew
Wm. Brucker.

Two Not Defined.
G. W. Thompson of Wyoming when asked, replied that he had "voted for Roosevelt" and Chairman C. C. Buckaloo, because of his position as chairman, was not asked. As nearly as possible the appointment of judges followed the law regarding party vote, and the complete list of election judges for the county will be published tomorrow.

Morning Session.
state aid road in Lee county, from Chicago Road to the Dixon-Franklin Grove highway, and to reconsider yesterday's action in the appointment of election judges for the ensuing year, were the main topics of argument and oratory at this morning's session of the county board; but nevertheless the supervisors found time to transact some other business. Accounts of their action in the state aid road and election judges question will be found elsewhere in the Telegraph.

J. P. McIntyre of this city was awarded the contract to furnish coal to the court house and jail during the coming winter; and a resolution of the Stephenson county board of supervisors condemning the proposed change in the method of collecting taxes and the abolition of the tax collector's offices, was laid on the table.

The board also considered several bills for meals and help which were submitted by the County Superintendent of Highways, but none of the bills were allowed, inasmuch as the resolution establishing that official's salary of $2,000 a year, provides that all expenses for supplies and assistance shall be borne by the Superintendent himself.

The judiciary committee also reported this morning that they had found upon investigation that the supervisors have no legal right to offer reward for the conviction of parties who throw rubbish into the public highways, a matter which was discussed yesterday. The power to prosecute such offenders lies with the commissioners of highways of the various townships, according to the committee report.

Yesterday Afternoon.
The board convened shortly after three o'clock yesterday afternoon on their return from a visit to the County Home. The report of the probation officer was read and the well bounty orders reported.

Look For Location.
Supervisor J. W. Edwards entered a motion that the county home committee be instructed to look for suitable places where the Lee County home could be located, get valuations and options and report their findings to the board at the next meeting in September.

The motion brought out some argument and Supervisor Banks said that he thought the committee should be instructed as to the size of a farm that the county wants. He said that the fire protection on the farm was inadequate and that the "building are old and obsolete."

The motion carried as Mr. Ed-

WATCH THE BULLETIN BOARD

The Evening Telegraph bulletin board, in front of Kennedy's cigar store on Galena avenue, near First street, is the center of the attention of the baseball fans of Dixon and vicinity for the service furnished by the Telegraph, through the medium of the Associated Press wire reports on baseball games played in the major leagues all over the country each day is highly appreciated by those interested in the sport.

The Associated Press reports bring the ball game results into Dixon earlier than ever before, and if you will watch the Telegraph bulletin board, you will get them first.

ANOTHER VOTING PRECINCT IS ADDED

FIRST PRECINCT DIVIDED INTO TWO AND NUMBER OF ALL THE OTHERS ADVANCE ONE NUMBER.

HAD OVER 600 MALE VOTERS

All North of First and East of Galena and Dixon and South of River is Now in First Precinct.

Because of the heavy vote which is always polled in the first precinct in Dixon township, the total vote having been over the statutory limit of 450 for several years, the board of supervisors at this morning's session concurred in the recommendation of the Dixon supervisors that the district be divided, and hereafter Dixon township will consist of seven instead of six voting districts.

The only change made, however, is in the first district which has been divided into two precincts, as follows:

District No. 1.—All of that territory south of the river and east of the center line of Galena avenue from Rock river to First street, thence east on the center line of Dixon avenue, thence south on said center line of Dixon avenue to the center line of E. Seventh street and Chicago street to the township limits.

District No. 2.—All of that part of Dixon township south of Rock river and east of the center line of Galena avenue from First street to the township limits and of the center lines of Dixon avenue and Chicago street.

The polling place of the new district No. 1 will be at Hart & Nettz' garage while the polling place for the new district No. 2 will be at the Shaw building on First street, the old polling place of the first district.

The numbers of each of the other districts have been advanced one number.

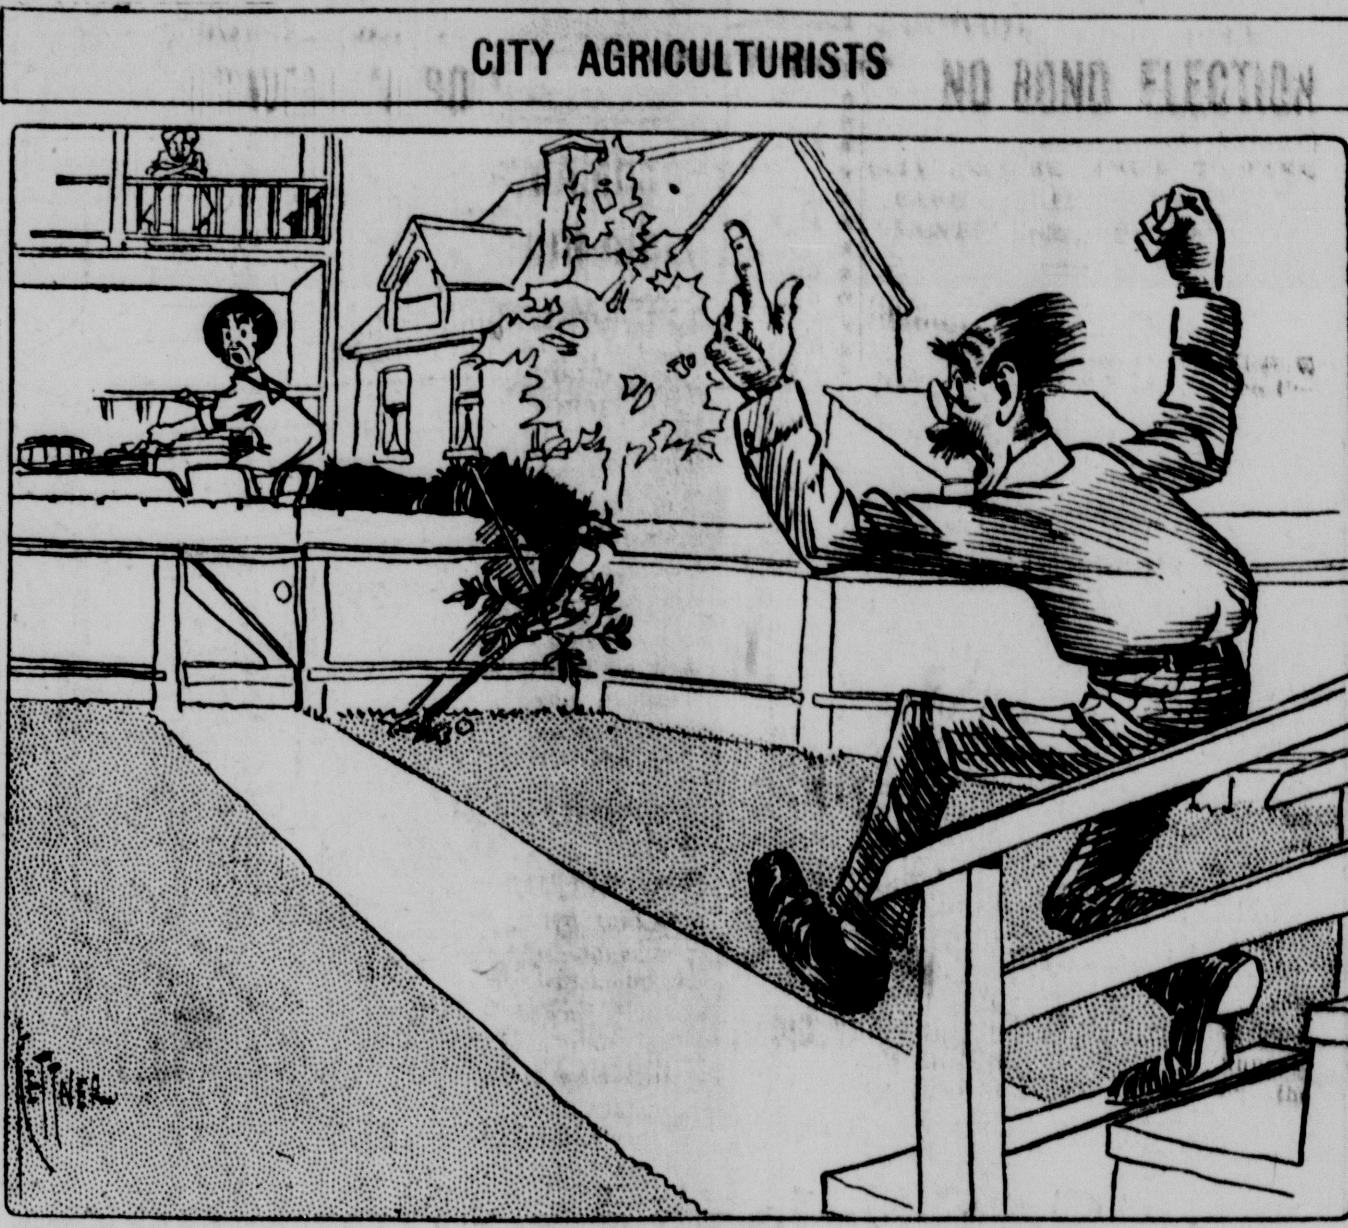

It is believed that the new arrangement will meet all requirements of the voters until the constitutionality of the women's suffrage law is passed upon. However, should the supreme court uphold the right of the women to vote it will require an entire redistricting of the townships, as nearly 4300 votes were cast at the last township election. That total vote would require ten voting precincts for the township, at least three of which would have to be placed in North Dixon. Should the constitutionality of the women's law be upheld the board will take up the further redistricting of the city at some future meeting.

MAJOR TOURTILLOTT OUT FOR SHERIFF

DIXON MAN ANNOUNCES HIMSELF AS CANDIDATE RE-PUBLICAN PRIMARIES.

Albert T. Tourtillott, retired farmer and well and favorably known in public life in this district, today announced himself as a candidate on the Republican ticket for the office of Sheriff of Lee County, subject to the will of the voters at the primaries on September 9th.

Major Tourtillott has held several public offices of note and in every case his record has been one that reflected great credit upon himself and the voters that elected him. He is a man of integrity and honesty and he has shown himself to be extremely capable, worthy of any trust that the voters may put in him. His record as sheriff during the term terminated four years ago is as good an argument for his return as any. He is known throughout the county and will be a strong candidate, without doubt. Major Tourtillott served a term as representative from the Thirty-fifth district, and his record in the state legislature was highly commendable.

STATE AID ROAD IS NOT TO BE SHIFTED

CLASH IN BOARD MEETING THIS MORNING RESULTED IN A DEFEAT FOR LINCOLN HIGHWAY.

DIXON SUPERVISORS SPLIT

McCleary and Burket Voted in Favor of Lincoln Highway, But Anderson Stayed With Southern Townships.

The offer of the Sandusky-Portland cement manufacturers to donate 2000 barrels of cement for use on the state aid roads in Lee county, provided the state aid work in the county was done on the Lincoln highway, didn't "listen good" to 13 of the 23 members of the board of supervisors and after a lot of oratory at this morning's session the proposition to change the state aid work from the Chicago road to the Nachusa and Franklin grove road was defeated by a vote of 13 to 10.

The question was brought before the board in a resolution calling attention to the offer of the cement manufacturers, and calling for a change of the original plan of improving the Chicago road as the state aid highway. Assistant Supervisor McCleary of Dixon township, moved the adoption of the resolution. He got a second, but Supervisor Young of South Dixon got ahead of the vote with a motion to table the resolution. This motion was defeated by a 13 to 10 vote. Supervisors Anderson, McCleary and Burket of Dixon voting against placing the question on the table.

Friends of the Lincoln highway, however, got short joy in the vote, for the motion to adopt the resolution was defeated by the same vote, and the state aid road will remain where it was located last winter, on the Chicago road, at a point commencing at or near the Shippert Corners. Supervisor Anderson of Dixon voted against the resolution, while Supervisors McCleary and Burket voted for the change.

SHERIFF REID MAKES HIS ANNOUNCEMENT

IS REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR THE NOMINATION OF COUNTY TREASURER THIS FALL.

Sheriff C. P. Reid, candidate for the republican nomination for treasurer of Lee county, in another column presents his name to the voters of Lee county for their consideration. Mr. Reid's fourteen years of living in Dixon have been mostly spent in positions of trust: One year in finishing a business course, five years with a large real estate firm of this city and eight years as deputy sheriff and sheriff. These years of service have given him the reputation of an expert accountant, a thorough business man and a man of highest integrity, that all recognize. The acquaintances gained through these years of service have become friends and the friendship of these coupled with the man and his ability, make success almost assured.

Doctor Chandler of North Jefferson avenue sailed for Europe on Wednesday.

ST. JAMES MAN IS INJURED BY PLOW

EDWARD SLOUGH CUT AND BRUISED BY MACHINE — HORSES FRIGHTENED.

Edward Slough, a farmer living near St. James was painfully injured yesterday when he was run over by a corn plow.

Mr. Slough had returned from the field where he had been using the plow and in unhitching the team neglected to fasten one tug. Thus when the team started to the barn, the tongue of the plow was thrown against them, causing them to jerk away from Mr. Slough and start running. This move of the team was so sudden that the St. James man had no opportunity to avoid the plow, which hit him and knocked him down. He was dragged and rolled a short distance and freed himself when the team stopped. It was found that he was badly bruised about the head and shoulders and severely cut on the forehead. However, the injuries are not extremely serious.

NEW FACTORY COMES HERE FROM ASHTON

SWAN AND LEYDIG BUY OUT VELLER & SONS KNITTING FACTORY.

Ashton, Ill., June 11.—The Veller & Sons Knitting factory of Ashton has been sold and is being moved to Dixon, by the new owners, Swan & Leydig.

The factory is capable of employing about twenty girls, but lack of help forced the closing of the institution in Ashton.

LICENSED TO WED

Marriage licenses were issued to Charles T. Self and Miss Lillian L. Lance, Dixon; Isaac A. Evans and Mrs. Mary Jacob, Cedar Rapids; Lew is W. Drummonds and Miss Edith E. Vail, Dixon; and Ray R. Springer and Addie H. Hansen, Dixon.

WIT AND NEAR WIT.

He—They say, dear that people who live together, get in time, to look exactly alike.

She—They may consider my refusal final.

Girl—You said! Can it be that you made a bet at your club that if you proposed to me, I would accept you?

Man—Well, I've proposed. Will you?

Girl—How much did you bet?

When female lecturer gets off that old saw about an honest man being the noblest work of God, every man in the audience imagines that he is blushing.

TELEGRAPHERS ON I. C. MAY STRIKE

IF THE NEGOTIATIONS NOW BEING CARRIED ON ARE UNSUCCESSFUL.

KEY MEN ON OTHER ROADS ALSO INVOLVED

Increase of Fifteen Per Cent in Wages is Chief Demand of Operators.

Freeport Journal: The telegraph operators on the Illinois Central are awaiting the outcome of the controversy of the members of the union with officials of the company relative to their request for a raise in wages and whether or not a strike will be called. During the past week the telegraphers of 300 railroads in the country have been very active, and a meeting was concluded on Saturday before an arbitration board, the decision of which has not been given out, but the general impression prevails that a strike will be the result.

The affair locally has been very interesting. The members of the local union were requested to take part in the strike in case one is called, and it is reported that strike votes were sent out and that all except one of the operators on the Illinois Central district south of this city voted in favor of the strike, however, this report can not be confirmed.

On last Thursday a special train of local officials was sent from this city to meet the operators between Freeport and Clinton and to talk over the strike situation with them. It is not known just what the trip resulted in but it was stated by operators that they were offered 5 per cent increase over their present salary but the men are asking a 15 per cent increase and it was stated that they would not accept any compromise. It was also stated that if the men went out on strike they would have to come back as new men if hired and that they would lose all their rights, no matter how long a period of time they might have been in service.

The local men will not make known their stand in the matter but it has been stated that they will remain firm and go with the telegraphers should a strike be called.

FOUND OBSTRUCTIONS IN PEORIA AVE MAIN

MATERIAL LEFT BY FORMER WORKMEN CAUSED STOPPAGE OF PIPES.

While working on the gas mains in the vicinity of Third street and Peoria avenue Wednesday afternoon the workmen found several large pieces of oakum wedged in the pipes, the material having been left there by laborers several years ago. The oakum provided almost complete obstruction to the flow of gas through the mains, and accounts for the trouble patrons of the company residing in the south part of the city have experienced in getting sufficient gas supply.

PASS EXAMS.

Sherwood Dixon, Milton Williams, Carl Kling and Fred Vaughan Jr., who recently took the examination for University of Illinois scholarships, have been advised by County Superintendent Miller that they passed the examination with the required average, and they are now making plans for attending the state institution.

12 PAGES TONIGHT.

Because of the press of advertising and news matter, we are publishing twelve pages again tonight. It evidently pays to advertise in the Telegraph, for "everybody's doing it" with a vengeance.

Readers of the Telegraph will notice that on many evenings during the last six months it has been necessary to "crowd" the columns and the lines of type are cast thinner, allowing room for more reading matter.

The Telegraph has carried more advertising in its columns during the past three months than ever before at the same season of the year.

NEED OF NEW COUNTY HOME IS APPARENT

VISIT TO THE OLD HOME SHOWS WHAT WONDERS COULD BE DONE WITH SAME ENERGY IN NEW HOME.

CARE TAKERS DO SPLENDIDLY

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wicher Keep the Home Up in Fine Shape Despite the Poor Equipment and a Lack of Grounds.

There were sixty men in the party that visited the Lee County Home near Eldena yesterday, comprising mainly the supervisors and county officers and the owners of the automobiles which were donated to take the party out and back.

Those sixty men never ate a better or a bigger dinner in their lives, and they never will until they are again privileged to enjoy the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wicher, keepers of the County Home.

Newspaper space is valuable and life is short, so we cannot attempt to describe that dinner. In fact, it defies description. Every man dared a pleasant death by the way he ate.

Inspection of the Lee County Home simply showed that the institution is being maintained on the same high standard that Mr. and Mrs. Wicher have always kept it. They are doing wonderfully well with what they have to do with, although the fact that a new County Home is a crying need in this county was more apparent than ever.

The buildings on the farm are relics of the pioneer days. A century ago they might have been considered good but now they are a disgrace to this prosperous county. They are a menace to the inmates and are a liability rather than an asset to the county. A fire, night or day, would be most likely to claim many of the lives of the nearly helpless inhabitants of the home. The farm is ridiculously small for the needs of the home. About 97 acres it contains, and 200 acres would be a small enough tract to support the institution. The land is not what it should be and the sanitary conditions, drainage, etc., are anything but right. Moreover, the farm is in an inaccessible place, comparatively.

Mr. and Mrs. Wicher are to be highly commended for the way they keep the farm up with the poor equipment they are offered. No one could do better.

There are thirty inmates in the home now, twenty men and ten women. They are cared for tenderly and given all possible attention and comfort and the unfortunates who are sent to the Lee County Home find that, after all, their lot is not so hard.

The guests at the farm yesterday were unanimous in their praise of the way the caretakers have kept the place up and in their thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Wicher for the pleasant hours they were privileged to spend there.

Ralph Bates of this city visited in Franklin Grove Tuesday evening.

Misses Elizabeth and Esther Runyon of Franklin Grove shopped here on Tuesday.

Mrs. Hildebrand and daughters and Mrs. Brandt shopped here on Tuesday from Polo.

Sheriff Wahl of Morrison was here on business Wednesday.

Supervisor and Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Frank Young were shopping here today.

COUNCIL WILL HOLD NO BOND ELECTION

CITY WILL BE ABLE TO TAKE CARE OF SHARE OF IMPROVEMENTS FROM POOR INCOME.

CHANGE IN SALOON HOURS

Dixon Saloons May Remain Open Until 11 o'Clock Saturday Nights.

The Dixon commissioners have decided that inasmuch as they find that the fixed income of the city is sufficient to care for the city's share of public improvements made and contemplated, it will not be necessary to issue bonds, therefore there will be no special election in Dixon this year for a bond issue, as had been planned this spring.

Mayor Brinton stated that unless something occurs to curtail the fixed income of the city, there will be no need for a bond issue at all and that the improvements can all go through as planned without borrowed money.

The council in a short session this morning disposed of much city business and several matters of unusual interest were passed upon by the board of local improvements in a session following the adjournment of the commissioners.

Bids were submitted by several companies for the award of the contract for 1000 feet of canvas covered fire hose, Commissioner Gannon moving that the bid of the Eureka Fire Hose company be accepted, which motion was passed and the contract was awarded to that concern.

Change Closing Hours

An ordinance amending the saloon and dramshop ordinance fixing the hour of closing and the removal of screens was passed. The ordinance provides that it shall be unlawful for any person licensed to sell intoxicants in this city to open or permit any other person to open his place of business from 11 p. m. Saturday until 5 a. m. the following Monday, or to open such place from 10 to 5 on any other day of the week or on election day. No guest or other person may be admitted at any such time and any person guilty of opening such place for any purpose shall be fined not less than $25 nor more than $200.

Mayor Brinton at this time passed on the ordinance on file which had been held for his return from his vacation, concerning the extension of a water main from W. Everett street to the Gilton barn. The mayor having carefully considered the matter, decided it would be impractical to lay such mains with the street in its present condition and promised to act on the matter providing the residents of the district would compile a petition for bettering the street by the addition of sewer and better street construction.

The board of improvement passed on several estimates of proposed sewer construction presented by Civil Engineer Nesbit, providing for 200 feet of sewer on E. Everett St. to N. Dixon Ave. costing $867.37, 557 feet of sewer on E. Chamberlain to N. Ottawa costing $666.60 and 359 feet on N. Galena Ave. to the I. C. tracks, costing $431.91.

The board also approved the construction of 240 feet of sewer on Fifth St. flowing south into the sewer on Seventh street.

KRAMERUS 5 & 10C STORE TO BE REMODELED

It is Mr. Kramer's intention to have one of the finest stores in Northern Illinois.

RENTS HOME HERE.

Superintendent Higgins, the new Superintendent of the North Dixon schools has leased the home owned by Miss Marica Young, at 520 North Crawford avenue. He will bring his family here about July 1st.

IS MUCH BETTER.

Mrs. Elmer Reynolds, who has been critically ill at the hospital, shows marked improvement each day. Her infant child has been taken to Clinton, Iowa, by her mother.

BACK FROM SCHOOL.

Miss Winifred Dunton has returned from Mount St. Claire Academy at Clinton, where she has attended school the past winter.

WILLIAMS READY TO FIGHT

New Bantam Champ Will Meet All Who Make 116 Pounds.

Los Angeles, June 11.—All challengers for the bantamweight title annexed by Johnny (Kid) Williams of Baltimore must do 116 pounds ring-side, according to the conqueror of Johnny Coulon. Williams issued this ultimatum while perusing a stack of telegrams from fight-seekers in all parts of the country.

That Coulon lost his title because of lack of condition, lack of stamina and the loss of the brilliant speed formerly at his command was the sporting writers' diagnosis. The Chicagoan appeared to be the mere shell of the former little champion. He said after the battle he could not make his fists and feet obey orders quickly enough. Williams will fight "Young" Herman in New Orleans on July 4.

NEEDS COURAGE AND SPIRIT

Passive Obedience Has Never Made for Man or Woman a Place in Pages of History.

We moderns are popularly supposed to have been the first to profess admiration for the strong-minded woman, whom we proudly or derisively call the "new" woman. Yet if we study history, and not merely hear-say, we find that the heroines of the world were by no means gentle, submissive creatures.

Electra, whom the ancients exalted far above her milder sister, Chrysothemis, would certainly have been a suffragette, had she lived in this century.

Cleopatra, Hypatia, Joan of Arc, however diverse otherwise, were at least alike in rebelling against authority and following their own way.

Roxana would have seemed more attractive had she eloped with Ivanhoe, and we all prefer the nobler Rebecca, who nearly died a martyr because she was among the first lady doctors.

From time immemorial courage and spirit have been extolled, and justly so, too. People who feel deeply cannot always be passive. They wish to control destiny, not to be controlled by it, and sometimes they actually succeed in their desire, through their very refusal to accept the inevitable.

Obedience is apt to be often overrated virtue which may be the result of indifference or laziness, a mere craving for peace at any price, instead of a genuine and unselfish humility.

Investigating Abroad.

Miss Sophie Irene Loeb, a member of the New York state commission to examine into the question of widows' pensions and the housing of the poor, has been studying such questions in Europe for the last few months. She visited England, Scotland, Denmark, Germany and Switzerland and will report to the legislature of New York the result of her investigations. She says she found the best boarding-out system in Scotland, where less than one per cent of poor children become criminals. A widowed mother in Denmark is not supported by the poor relief fund, but has an allowance that enables her to take care of her children. France has appropriated $10,000,000 in allowances that the home may remain intact.

Army Burden Waxes.

In Russia the government is elaborating a measure for the increase of the army which will shortly be laid before the duma. For 1913 the Russian military budget showed an increase of nearly one hundred million dollars, that of 1914 an increase on last year of about fifty-five million dollars. As though this were not enough it is now intended to increase the army by three new army corps and two divisions of cavalry. The fortifications on the German and Austrian frontiers are also to be strengthened and a large part of the artillery is to be supplied with new guns of an improved type.

Dramatic Notes

FAMILY THEATER.

The Peoria Evening Star has the following to say of the Marx Brothers Musical company, which opens at the Family Theater tonight:

"Blithesome, gay and sparkling as an effervescent summer drink and as deliciously refreshing and stimulating as that same, 'Mr. Green's Reception,' with the four Marx Brothers as stars, opened a four days' engagement at the Orpheum last night to the usual packed Sunday night audience. The tabloid ah a flavor as rare as it is beguiling. There is a total absence of the usual blatant ragtime songs and silly, inane dances, to say nothing of the time-worn 'gags' that frequently comedy and agonizing experience.

The music is simple and charming, full of real melody and sung by rich and beautiful voices.

And, as for the company, it is an all-star aggregation, every member of which has made his or her mark in high-class vaudeville and whose names have been emblazoned in electric over the doors of big metropolitan theaters. The names of the four Marx Brothers have long been associated with the best that there is in smart and up-to-date vaudeville. All four are brilliantly gifted.

Leonard Marx does fine piano specialty which is equally brilliant and thing in that line that Peoria has ever seen.

Arthur Marx contributes a harp specialty, which is by far the cleverest and won the young gentleman just as many ecstatic recalls as were bestowed upon his accomplished brother.

Julius Marx gives two very clever comedy impersonations, one of an old schoolmaster in the school opens and the other of the aged host at the reception.

Milton Marx, the fourth brother, is likewise a comedian of notable gifts and helps along the fun throughout the evening.

The singing of Jack Laemmle, whose big musical bass is a joy to the soul of every music lover, is a valuable asset of the production.

Miss Saba Shepard, the prima donna, of the organization, is likewise gifted with an uncommonly lovely voice, and, as she is as pretty as they grow 'em, there was good reason for her popularity with last night's audiences. The Harris Twins give the swiftest and most extraordinary exhibition of eccentric hard-shoe dancing yet seen in Peoria. Their work is speedy, snappy and original to a remarkable degree and they make one of the big hits of the production.

The chorus is made up of extraordinarily pretty girls, the costumes are new, fresh and pretty, and altogether the show is the cleanest, brightest, gayest summer show that any jaded end-of-the-season theatergoer could possibly ask.

On account of the expense of the production, the admission for adults will be 25c., and children 10c.

PRINCESS THEATER.

Tonight the Princess Theater series of "Our Mutual Girl," in which she visits the famous shops of Madame Louise and tries on many dainty creations. Later in the day she meets Elsie DeWolf, the famous actress and many other incidents are shown in this series.

Four patients entered the Dixon Hospital Wednesday.

Miss Ruth Hildebrand, Marie Boettcher, Gladys Hildebrandt and Mrs. Thomas motored to this city yesterday from Polo and did shopping.

Saturday is the Last Day!
Even tomorrow may end your chance to have the NEW HOOSIER for $1.

Will you decide now to come down tomorrow and settle the matter once for all, or will you let tomorrow drift by—and then realize you are too late to decide, because of the close of the Hoosier Plan of Sale?

Scores of other women are in your state of mind. They are reading this final call tonight. And many who have postponed as you have are making up their minds tonight to come down tomorrow for a final decision.

A choice still remains between "White Beauty" (selected by 3 out of 4 women) and the Hoosiers with "Oak" interior. But the numbers are few and you cannot hope to get one if you delay. You incur no obligation by coming, so let other matters wait tomorrow while you settle this important question.

You could scarcely imagine a decision of more importance to you. For the new Hoosier is a wonderful labor-saver—already used by 700,000 women. It saves miles of steps and hours of valuable time. It saves health and good looks. It is very low in price—and on the liberal terms of the Hoosier Plan is the Cheapest Kitchen Cabinet Ever Built.

The Hoosier Plan is Simply This:

1. $1 puts any Hoosier you select in your Home.
2. $1 weekly quickly pays for it.
3. The Low Cash Price fixed by the Factory prevails strictly.
4. The Sale is under direct supervision of the Hoosier Company.
5. No interest. No extra fees.
6. Your money back if you are not delighted with your Hoosier.

What Possible Reason can remain to deprive you of the use of this Hoosier? Only the small number of Hoosiers left and the certainty that more women will come than we can supply. Every day we have enrolled more women on the Hoosier plan than we expected. There are fewer cabinets left for tomorrow than we have sold in one day. These few undoubtedly would be taken without this ad, but we make this final announcement to keep our promise to advise you of the last day.

We Now Have Kept Our Promise to You

Please remember, if you come too late, that we have told you every day of the progress of this sale, and that we now warn you of the final date in time for you to still enroll if you act early tomorrow.

It cannot wear out and cannot grind through any grit or foreign substance that might be in the flour.

Twenty of these features are described in our WINDOW DISPLAY, which is the talk of the town. Come in and find out about the others.

- (5) The new Bill File is a complete bookkeeping system for most households. OTHER CITIES URGE OBSERVANCE.

The Chicago Tribune recently commented editorially as follows upon the new citizenship feature of Fourth of July observances:

"It will be a mistake for the Chicago Sane Fourth association to disband. It has done splendid work in the past. It has eliminated the slaughter and injuries which were incident to every July Fourth celebration prior to the establishment of the sane Fourth movement. But urgently as the association was needed a dozen years ago, it is needed today also.

"Making the Fourth of July sane was the work of the past decade. To make the Fourth of July carry with it a true patriotic significance should be the work of the present. There is need in this country for a propaganda for Americanism. And just as Chicago was the pioneer in the movement for a sane fourth, it should lead in a movement for enlightened patriotism.

"Our foreign population is increasing. And while the foreign American citizens are themselves doing all they can to direct their children in the path of patriotism and good citizenship, their efforts are often limited by their lack of familiarity with the history, institutions, and the spirit of the country. They need a helping hand. It is here that the sane Fourth association has great opportunity for service. It can lend the helping hand."

TWENTY-SEVEN HUNDRED PROGRESSIVES.

Supervisor Mannion, of Harmon, in board meeting yesterday, asked a pertinent question. He was anxious to know, he said, why it was that if there were twenty-seven hundred odd progressives in Lee county in the election of 1912, that they did not elect any other county officer than coroner. We are led to believe, as was Supervisor Mannion, that those twenty-seven hundred odd progressives were mostly Roosevelt men, and that was as far as their progressivism went. At least it did not stick to them all the way down the line.

Mr. Mannion said he thought that about two thousand of these twenty-seven hundred odd progressives were republicans now, leaving about seven hundred progressives in Lee county at the present writing.

It is possible that they may poll seven hundred votes this fall, but five hundred would be a safer bet.

ELECTION JUDGES.

Our good friends, the county supervisors, held a rather warm session of the board yesterday afternoon after they got back from the county farm. They were not just sure, some of them, whether the Bull Moosers should be represented in the various appointments of judges of election. The general opinion seemed to be that there was no progressive party in Illinois because of the fact that the party had never gone through a primary and that it was impossible, therefore, to prove that a man was a progressive, even though he claimed to be.

However, as Chairman Buckaloo said, what's the difference whether the election judges are Bull Moosers, populists or Presbyterians, just so they are honest and count the ballots straight?

The Colonel's River

BY WALT MASON

The colonel, afar in Brazil, has found a new river, they say; it's deep, and it travels up hill, and broadens out into a bay. Its borders are ruggedly bluffed, it has some preposterous falls; the colonel will soon have it stuffed, and brought to Smithsonian halls. It has a most wonderful bend, this river the colonel has found; and sometimes it stands upon end, then burrows deep into the ground. Its waters are yellow and pink, it's covered with glittering foam; they say it's lots better to drink than any old grape juice at home. And sirens recline on its shore, their music is heard through the mist, and down on its beautiful floor the mermaids are playing bridge whist. We've always felt sure in our mind the colonel would do things in style, and any old stream he might find would beat other streams by a mile. Good bye to the old Mississippi! Its fame and its glories will flee! The Amazon henceforth may slip unsung to its grave in the sea! The Rhine and the Danube, I fear, must down to Oblivion flit; the colonel has captured the peer, and broke it to saddle and bit! Good bye to famed streamlets and burns, the Afton, the Avon, the Po! Just wait till the colonel returns, and mark how such rivers sing low!

MOOSE LEADER WON'T RESIGN

G. W. PERKINS ASSERTS PINCHOT ATTACK WILL NOT DRIVE HIM FROM PARTY.

LETTER ASKS RESIGNATION

National Committee Chairman of the Progressives Denounced as Menace to Party Because of Affiliation With Trusts.

New York, June 11.—George W. Perkins said that he had no intention of retiring as chairman of the executive committee of the Progressive national committee.

"What Mr. Pinchot says cannot drive me out of the Progressive party," said Mr. Perkins. "I don't think Mr. Pinchot's letter will either help or hurt him. I don't think anything will happen as a result of the letter. I don't think it will change either his relations or mine to the Progressive party."

A copy of the Pinchot letter was forwarded to Mr. Perkins by Chairman Dixon shortly after it was written on May 23. Colonel Roosevelt also had a copy before he sailed for Spain.

Pinchot Termed Sincere.

"I don't question Mr. Pinchot's sincerity," Mr. Perkins said. "Pinchot is privileged to think as he pleases and I shall certainly cling to my opinions."

"Are you going to make any reply either to Mr. Pinchot or to the national committee of the Progressive party?" Mr. Perkins was asked. "I have no such intention," said Mr. Perkins. "I do not see why I should write to the committee members when what I could write would not be news to them."

"Do you think the Progressive leaders will take official cognizance of the letter?" "That is not for me to say," said Mr. Perkins. "The Progressive national committee can do whatever it pleases."

Perkins Is Denounced.

Denouncing Mr. Perkins as a menace to the party principally because of his affiliation with the United States Steel corporation and the International Harvester company, Amos Pinchot made public the text of the confidential letter which he recently addressed to Theodore Roosevelt, the members of the national committee and other leaders. The two corporations referred to by Mr. Pinchot are branded "two great monopolies which have succeeded most completely in exploiting the public and crushing organized labor."

The letter opens by declaring that "a situation exists in the Progressive party which must be terminated before it can command popular support."

"Alded Steel Corporation."

Mr. Pinchot says in his letter that Mr. Perkins' name has been signed to resolutions of the Steel corporation declaring against organization within its plants, and that "Mr. Perkins' views on the most critical issues between capital and organized labor coincide closely with those of John D. Rockefeller, Jr."

In view of all these facts, Mr. Pinchot says, the rank and file and the majority of the leaders of the party feel that Mr. Perkins' resignation as chairman of the executive committee is necessary. Mr. Pinchot declares he believes even Mr. Perkins will agree with him that the success of the party demands such action immediately.

Mrs. Elizabeth Barge Martin went to Clinton, Ia., today.

KERMIT WEDES MISS WILLARD

Civil Marriage Ceremony Is Performed at Madrid.

Madrid, June 10.—In the residence of the magistrate of the Buenavista district, Miss Belle Wyatt Willard, daughter of the American ambassador to Spain and Mrs. Joseph E. Willard, and Kermit Roosevelt, son of ex-President Theodore Roosevelt, were united in marriage by the Spanish civil ceremony today. Although the function was small in comparison with the religious ceremony which takes place tomorrow in the American embassy, all the formalities of Spanish law were strictly observed. Ambassador Willard had specially requested that there be no exceptions made on account of the high position of the contracting parties and every requirement of the law governing foreign marriages was fulfilled.

Effect of Colors.

The stout woman should know that yellow increases her natural size. Satin also makes her look bigger. Blue is a slightly enlarging tone; white is stationary. Black, seal brown, navy blue and the deepest of crimsons are all tones that make the wearer look slimmer.

wards had put it, however. Election Judges.

The matter of selection of election judges brought out the warmest debate of the afternoon. States Attorney Harry Edwards was asked for his opinion on the legality of appointing progressives as judges of elections. The official said that the law stated that the political party receiving the highest number of votes for governor at the preceding election and the next highest party at the same election, were the ones to receive the appointments and he said that he believed that the progressive party could be officially considered a party and that they were entitled to representation.

Representative Devine, speaking as Democrat and for the Democrats disagreed with State Attorney Edwards when he was given the floor and stated that in his opinion, until such time as the Progressive party had established themselves as a party, they had no right to such recognition.

Not Many of Them.

Representative Devine said, "I, like a supervisor has just stated to the board, find many men who were progressives and who, when asked what their politics now are, they say, 'I voted for Roosevelt, but I am a 'Republican, now.'"

Supervisor Banks arose in defense of this attack upon his party and said that a study of the election returns at the last election in Lee County would show that there was an active Progressive party here. He intimated that any opinion that the Attorney General of Illinois may render on the subject would not have much weight with him.

Mannion Answers.

Supervisor Mannion of Harmon took the floor and said that in answer to Mr. Banks, from Brooklyn, who said that there were twenty-seven hundred Progressives in Lee County at the last election, he would like to know how many of them were left. Mr. Mannion said that if he were to make a rough guess at it, he would say that about two thousand of them were Republicans which left only about seven hundred for the Progressives.

Mr. Mannion asked how it was that with all of that big Progressive vote, which was larger than any other party got in the county, the Progressives did not elect more than one county officer.

AUTOS DAMAGED IN HEAD ON COLLISION

TWO MACHINES QUITE BADLY DAMAGED IN SMASH-UP
SOUTH OF DIXON.

Two automobiles, one owned by Frank Rosbrook of Dixon and the other owned by William Jones of Lee Center, crashed together on the Amboy road about ten miles south of Dixon last night, near twelve o'clock, with disastrous results to both machines, though fortunately none of the occupants were badly injured.

Rosbrook's machine, a Vellie, driven by himself, and containing a party of traveling men, was traveling toward Dixon and the Jones car, Buick, was coming south. The Jones car contained Fred Hark and wife and William Jones and wife and is said to have been driven by Mr. Hark. Mr. Rosbrook was driving his car slowly, and says that the other car was going slowly and the Dixon man claims to have gotten as far over to the right side of the road as he safely could, but the other machine hit his head on and the impact was sufficient to do considerable damage to the fronts of both cars. Wind shields, radiators, hoods, front springs, etc., suffered badly. No one was thrown out and fortunately no one was hurt.

Doctor Hornblazer, from Amboy, passing notified Joseph Miller of Dixon, who went after the disabled cars and their occupants.

FAIR ELECTION IS URGED

General Wants This Country to Sup-

Mediation Proceedings Are at Standstill.

Washington, June 11.—With the mediation proceedings at Niagara Falls at a standstill and new complications impending with the arrival of American arms for the constitutionalists at Tampico, the Mexican question became still further involved as a result of the receipt of fresh proposals from Carranza embracing a suggestion of American occupation of the distracted republic. The first chief of the constitutionalists, who has proclaimed himself provisional president of Mexico, now proposes that the United States pacify Mexico in the manner in which this government twice has established orderly government in Cuba.

Wilson Has Constitutionalist Note.

The proposals are contained in a lengthy communication which Carranza has sent to the A.-B.-C. mediators. A copy of the dispatch was transmitted to the White House by the constitutionalist junta here, and Secretary Bryan was requested to forward a copy to the American delegates at Niagara Falls.

President Wilson conferred with Secretary Bryan for more than an hour on the plan suggested by Carranza, and later he talked with Senator Stone of Missouri, chairman of the foreign relations committee of the senate.

U. S. Looks With Favor on Scheme.

There is reason to believe that the president and Mr. Bryan look with favor upon a part, if not all, of the proposals made by the leader of the revolution. They believe that with Carranza in control of the greater part of Mexico and pushing his victorious arms toward the capital it is only just that the head of the transitional government proposed by the mediators should be a man acceptable to the constitutionalists.

According to the most reliable information available the president still is considering the suggestion that the Cuban plan of pacification be undertaken in Mexico by the United States.

After the departure of Senator Stone from the White House it was reported that the president may call the members of the foreign relations committee into conference on the Carranza communication before definite instructions are sent to the American delegates.

Reviews Pacification of Cuba.

Carranza's dispatch dwells at some length on the propriety of the United States undertaking the same mission in Mexico that it did in Cuba.

It points out that the United States supervised the election of Tomas Estrada Palma, president of the Cuban republic, in 1902 before the American troops were withdrawn and that in course of the second occupation of the island in 1906 Gomez was elected the successor of Palma at a plebiscite held under the direction of the American authorities.

In seeking to establish that the Cuban and Mexican cases are parallel Carranza quotes from the messages of Presidents McKinley and Roosevelt passages setting forth the duty of the United States to restore orderly government in the island. The second occupation of Cuba was in accordance with the terms of the Platt amendment to the Cuban constitution.

Cited as Parallel Cases.

Carranza argues that there is as much justification of the American government assisting in the establishment of permanent order in Mexico and supervising the election as there was in the first occupation of Cuba as a result of the war with Spain.

The communication quotes from the resolution of congress authorizing President McKinley to use the land and naval forces of the United States to pacify Cuba.

There is hardly any doubt in official circles that the arms on the Ward liner Antilla, now en route for Tampico, will be landed there without opposition from the United States. Secretary of the Navy Daniels admitted that no orders have gone to Rear Admiral Mayo to hold up the arms, and that the instructions to keep the port of Tampico open for all commerce is still in force.

Mediators Wait on Carranza.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 11.—Once again the mediation proceedings are at a complete standstill. The Carranza note in reply to the mediators' message has not arrived here and the entire proceedings are being held up by this delay.

It was reported here that the Huerta delegates had agreed to favor a constitutionalist candidate for the provisional presidency of Mexico.

KAYAK 2 TAKES WATER GRACEFULLY

NEW CABIN CRAFT WAS suc-CESSFULLY LAUNCHED LATE
ON WEDNESDAY.

While a large crowd of interested spectators looked on, Koyak II, the handsome new cabin launch which has just been built by H. G. Reynolds and son-in-law, Douglas Harvey, took the water at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the big pleasure craft being christened by Mrs. Harvey as it struck the water. The launching of the craft, whose name signifies canoe, was of moment in that it means the completion of the most expensive launch ever put in the river at Dixon. Koyak II was shipped to Dixon "knocked down" from Maine and was built by Ben Peacock. She is one of but two launches in the entire country built on the same pattern. She is modern in every respect and represents an expenditure of over $3,000, electric starter for the powerful gasoline engine, electric lights, toilet rooms and two cabins, complete in every detail, being some of her conveniences. The cabins provide sleeping quarters for eight people and they are finished elegantly. In fact the boat is complete in every detail and the owners are justified in the great pride they take in her. After a trial on the river Messrs. Reynolds and Harvey will have the Koyak II, moved below the dam and will leave for a pleasure trip, which should prove exceptionally enjoyable.

Via Rock river, the canal feeder and the canal and the Illinois river they will go to Lake Michigan and will spend some time at the lake resorts.

HAVE FIGURES OF ATHLETES

American Business Men of Today Far Better Proportioned Than Those of a Generation Ago.

"The American man, the American business man of forty or forty-five, has got a new shape," said a tailor. "He's got a lean, straight shape—full chest, narrow hips. But if you could have seen him a generation ago!

"The business man of forty expected to be fat and soft a generation ago. He rather admired, in fact, a fat, soft shape. The richest business men were fat and soft—and that made a fashion of it—just as Queen Alexandra's lameness made a limp fashionable in Victorian times.

"What stomachs our fathers had at forty or forty-five! Feather-bed stomachs which they balanced by bending backward. A big stomach was a sign of success, a sign of gentility. If you were lean, why, you must be a laborer—perhaps you didn't get enough to eat.

"What is the cause of the slender, agile figures of today? Open air and exercise—that's the cause. Golf is the cause. Motoring is the cause.

"My friend," the tailor impressively ended, "my books show that the middle-aged business man of today is four inches bigger around the chest than the middle-aged business man of 1890, and 18 inches smaller around the stomach."

CONVERT TO EQUAL SUFFRAGE

Small Boy Had His Own Opinion as to Nerve of Men Who Refused It to Women.

The small boy's mother and aunt had just come in from the primaries. "Remember, Manny," said his aunt, "that when you were seven years old you saw your mother come in from voting for the first time."

He followed her into her room. "Why didn't you vote before?" he demanded.

"Men wouldn't let women vote until now. Of course, good men like your papa want all the business in the world managed right. They are going to let women help at last."

The small boy gave her a little push. "Women aren't all there are," he said, and marched haughtily out of the room.

He went to his father that evening, and as man to man asked: "Didn't women use to vote?" "No, but they are voting now." "Why didn't they vote before? Wouldn't men let them?" "No, I suppose not." "Well—men—had—their—nerve!" said the seven-year-old lad.

Keeping a Cheerful Lent.

"I used to think," said a Baltimore woman, "that I must keep Lent by being glum and going without things myself. But I have learned a better way. Now I make extra exertions to be cheerful and to make my family happy, and I try to visit the charitable institutions of the city. I plan to visit every one before I die, devoting Lent each year to my hobby. The amount that I have learned about the vast charities in my own city during the three years of my study is simply incredible. I take notes of my observations, and I have given several club talks about them, urging other women to follow my example. I carry always some flowers, and usually, besides, a glass of jelly, or a good book for the hospital or orphanage library, or give what I can of money. Fortunately, they have usually different days for visitors in the different institutions, so that I am able to go to three or four every week."

3 DIE IN GOTHAM FIRE

Eight Others Are Severely Hurt When Flats Burn.

New York, June 11.—Eight persons, four of them women, lost their lives, and eight were severely injured in a fire that spread through an old style East side tenement. More than a score of others were less seriously hurt. The fire was discovered just before four o'clock by a tenant, who saw a finger of flame dart from a locker room under the stairs, and shouted a warning. But the fire whirled through the tenement so rapidly that escape was cut off before all the tenants had been aroused. A woman and her son were killed by leaping from a window.

Laura Jean Libbey's Talks on Heart Topics

[Copyright, 1914, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate]

AGAINST HER PARENTS' WISHES.

I have heard—or dreamt, it may be—What love is when true How to test and how to try it, Is the gift of few.

Who does not know of the family with an only daughter, who rules with a high hand the home and the hearts of its inmates? She dresses to suit herself, despite the mild protests of her mother and the annoyance of her father. She entertains a set of young folks she likes best, goes where she pleases, and with whom she accepts invitations from escorts whom she has met but once or twice at a girl friend's home, without taking the trouble to mention it until the day of their going out together arrives, lest her parents might make objection, and she would have the trouble of talking them over to her view and wishes.

The wilful girl is usually overromantic. She considers herself as capable of choosing her own lover in the face of any opposition, just as she has always overruled opposition in selecting her hats and gowns of bizarre slit. She intends to please herself. She will have no interference in her love affairs.

The dashing young fellow who is living on expectations, visits her home regularly. He is not the type of man her parents would wish for, yet they hope against hope that love will spur him on to get into some successful business, and thus prove his worthiness of her, or, if he fails to make good through not trying, that the glamour will fall from her eyes—and she will see him as others see him.

They do not favor a sporty young man, with a handsome face, who intends that his good looks should do the work for him and earn as a reward a comfortable home to step into and a wife's well-filled, open pocket-book.

In homes where father rules the household, he does not make himself scarce in the parlor when a young man calls upon his daughter. The self-willed daughter is not averse to letting father know that they can get along without him; that she can never hope for a proposal of marriage under such conditions.

The parents, to whom their daughter's happiness is above all else, allow her to overrule their judgment as to what is best for her by permitting his continued visits. It is not until a girl sees such a fellow in his true colors that she realizes the grievous wrong she did her parents in encouraging the young man against their wishes.

Remember, it matters not to what extent a girl may have her own way in the household in most instances, she should be governed by her parents' wishes in her heart affairs. Earnest parental eyes look through the most clever ruse's disguise. They are quick to discover "the wolf in sheep's clothing, or the satanic lover with the cloven foot."

WHAT BRIDEGROOMS THINK OF HONEYMOONS.

When two that are linked in one heaven-dy tie, With heart never changing, and brow never cold, Love on through all ills, and love on till they die— One hour of a passion so sacred is worth Whole ages of heartless and wandering bliss.

It is not the thought of supporting a wife that causes some men to hesitate to wed; nor is it the fear of getting a bride who will not be congenial to his home folks; nor yet the worry over the possibility of having to keep the wife's family; but the dread of the honeymoon, which plays havoc with a man's matrimonial resolutions.

If his sweetheart is one of those fair rosebuds of girls who has never known what it is to be without that thorn, the ever-present, as it were, to gain the love of one, he wonders how they would get along when they depended entirely upon each other's society during the honeymoon.

No matter how little a man may have of this world's goods, where is the bride who does not think that the going-away trip, be it for a month, a fortnight or a week, is a very essential part of the program?

Of course, they go to a strange city. They know no one to call upon them or whom they may go to see. It is the newly-made husband's intention to lay aside all thoughts of business and devote his time to his bride's whims.

He who studies the program out in advance knows that it would be the theater for them each evening of the week, the sightseeing automobile just as soon as they finished breakfasting, with an hour for lunch, at some high-priced restaurant, where all the rest of the sightseers signified their intention of stopping. Every place of interest would be stopped at and dollar souvenir spoons would have to be purchased at two dollars each.

Letter heads are now used by all farmers with their name printed thereon. The Telegraph will be pleased to show you samples and quote prices at any time.

No man can afford to be stingy before his bride, especially while they are away on their honeymoon.

In his ruminations he concludes that no matter how sensible and prudent a girl may be the fact of acquiring a man who is all her own must surely mean that she would have some one to take her everywhere she wished to go, never questioning the cost. It would be very well if the sun shone every day so that they could get out of doors. But, great Scott! what would a man do if a continued storm should set in to keep them hotel-bound? It would be either the overcrowded parlor for them or their room, where she would write letters from morning till night to the home folks, friends, every one she could think of. He wouldn't have the temerity to smoke in so dainty a room. Pacing up and down, with his hands in his pockets, glancing from the pretty head bent over the writing desk to the falling rain splashing against the window pane, might soon get on the nerves of the bridegroom most deeply in love.

He knows that no bride could be asked to play a game of poker or billiards to put in the time. There would be the papers to read to her. But she'd want to read about fashion. If he didn't have a bride to please, he would be looking over the page devoted to sporting items. In summing up the matter, he would propose marriage to the girl who would cut out the honeymoon or consent to a belated one two or three years later.

HOODWINKING A HUSBAND. We school our manners, act our parts, But he who sees us through and through, Knows that the bent of both our hearts Was to be loving, honest, true.

There is no one to pull against the loosened purse strings if a single man chooses to spend all he earns. The married man who has but recently taken a wife, and with small income in most instances, concludes if he is to get ahead he must look after the pennies. Such a man does not intend to be stingy; far from it. He means only to be frugal. It never occurs to him that his helpmeet may not take the same view as he does. If a man weds a woman who has been used to economy, juggling successfully with the nimble sixpence, there is harmony in the household. If he marries a girl who has had all her wants plentifully supplied by her parents, she may secretly, rebel against being stinted down to a small amount—a fixed price to live on.

If her husband finds fault with her for buying too expensive tablecloths and napkins, in short, reads her a sharp lecture on extravagance, he is apt not to know from her the true cost of anything in future.

Of course, she cannot make the merchants come down in their prices. Hubby is fond of good living. She wants peace. Therefore, she does her best to stifle her conscience cry, to beware! take care! There should be no fibbing between husbands and wives.

No wife is justified in an attempt to hoodwink her husband by telling him that this or that is so much cheaper than it really is; or adding to the price of some article to eke out a little money to buy some bit of finery she craves, and after she has bought it fearing to show it up before him. Like many a woman, the weight of a secret in her heart is a heavy load—it hurts. When she confesses her little misdoings, wise is the husband who takes it good-naturedly.

Wiser, and more sensible still, is he who seeks her entire confidence and adds a little to her allowance to buy a bit of finery, or whatever she wants, rather than have her resort to even the least deception to satisfy his inquiries. It is always the wife who thinks most of her husband who believes that it is for his best interest not to be told anything which might annoy him. Her intentions are always well-meant. All wives should remember there is a world of truth in the lines:

Oh, what a fatal web we weave, When first we practise to deceive.

The wife who condones her own first offense in misleading her husband may soon find herself sliding down a slippery road, which ends in her destruction. A husband may forgive, but will he forget an untruth? Or will he have full confidence in one, no matter how dear, that would conceal the truth from him concerning any subject? While this is meant as a gentle reminder to wives, it is also intended as a warning to the husband who is unnecessarily close in dealing with his wife financially. He should study her nature and her needs.

Getting in Line. The late Cy Warner, who deserted railway literature for a real railway job in Montreal, told this story at a luncheon not long before his death. A Scotchman came upon an automobile overturned at a railway crossing. Beside it lay a man all smashed up.

"Get a doctor," he moaned. "Did the train hit you?" asked the Scotchman. "Yes, yes; get a doctor." "Has the claim agent been here yet?"

"No, no; please get a doctor." "Move over, you," said the Scot, "till I lie down beside you."

FABLES FOR THE FAIR

BY JOSEPHINE DODGE DASKAM

THE WOMAN WHO CAUGHT THE IDEA

There was once a Woman whose Fiance had a Decided Theory regarding the most Desirable Characteristics of the Sexes. This Theory, in a Word, was that a Woman should be Like a Clinging Vine, while a Man should Resemble a Sturdy Oak. For Many Years, therefore, the Woman had Practiced Clinging with Great Success. One day, However, her Fiance grew Critical of her Method and Addressed her thus:

"The Century is Progressing, and it Behooves Us to Progress with it. How can I Produce Great Works with no Mental Stimulus? I Want to be Criticised—appreciatively—Not Admired. March Abreast of Me and be my Spiritual Comrade, not my Slave. A Woman is the Noblest of God's Works. She Symbolizes a Number of Things. Let me Feel that your Blind Adulation has some Valuable Basis. Do you Catch the Idea?"

The Woman was Thunderstruck. "I am Afraid Not," she said, sadly. "Not Immediately, at Least. I must Admit that though I Admire your Work Dreadfully I can Not Understand it At All. I have been Clinging too Long."

So they Broke off the Engagement. The Fiance found a Progressive and Stimulating Woman who Agreed to Criticise him and March Abreast of him. The only Trouble with this was that Not Only did she March Abreast, but it Seemed Probable that she would Get Ahead. Also she had a Work of Her Own, which sometimes Interfered with His.

This was Hard to Bear, and the Fiance Found that his Views had Changed, and this time Forever. "I have been a Fool," he said, bravely. "I was Wrong. I will Go Back to my Old Love. She cannot Criticise, Thank Heaven, but she can Cling. I will Carry on my Work, and she will sit in a Low Chair with a Basket of Little Clothes and the Lamplight falling on her Hair in the Good Old Way. And if she Cannot Understand my Work, what of that? I can. A Man wants Sympathy, not Criticism."

So he Returned to his Old Love and said, "Let All Be as it was Before."

"I am Afraid that can Not be," she replied, Sadly. "Since I Lost You I have Given Up Clinging, and I have Caught Your Idea. I had to Sympathize with Someone, so I have Taken Up a Work of My Own. Judging from your Tone I think you Would Fail to Comprehend it. The Century is Progressing and Things can Never Be as they Were Before."

This teaches us that It's Well to Be On with the Old Love Before you are Off with the New.

LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Bring back color, gloss and thickness with Grandma's recipe of Sage and Sulphur.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

SIMMONS TOLLS
PLAN IS PASSED

Compromise Amendment Wins in the Senate by Vote of 50 to 24.

SUBSTITUTES ARE OFFERED

Sutherland's Proposal Is Laid on the Table After Speech in Which Successful Bill Is Assailed—Debate Ends at Night.

Washington, June 11.—The senate passed the Norris-Simmons compromise declaration to the repeal bill by a vote of 50 to 24. The vote on the amendment was:

Ayes—Bankhead, Brandegee, Bryan, Chilton, Colt, Crawford, Culberson, Fletcher, Gronna, Hitchcock, Hollis, Hughes, James, Johnson, Kenyon, Kern, Lane, Lea (Tenn.), Lea (Md.), Lewis, Lippitt, Lodge, McCumber, McLean, Martin, Myers, Nelson, Newlands, Norris, Overman, Owen, Pittman, Poindexter, Saulsbury, Sherman, Sheppard, Shively, Simmons, Smith (Ariz.), Smith (Ga.), Smith (Md.), Smith (S. C.), Sterling, Stone, Swanson, Thomas, Thompson, Weeks, West, White.

Nays—Ashurst, Bristow, Burleigh, Clark (Wyo.), Cummings, Gallinger, Goff, Jones, Martine, O'Gorman, Page, Perkins, Pomerene, Ransdell, Reed, Shields, Smith (Mich.), Smoot, Sutherland, Townsend, Walsh, Warren, Williams, Woods.

The declaration as thus agreed to provides that the passage of the act shall not be construed as a waiver of relinquishment of any right of the United States under the treaty or otherwise to discriminate in favor of vessels of its citizens by exempting from the payment of tolls, or as in any way waiving or affecting any right of the United States under the treaty or otherwise, with respect to the sovereignty over or the ownership, control and management of the canal and the regulation of the conditions or charges of traffic through the same.

Sutherland Offers Substitutes.

Immediately following this vote Mr. Sutherland offered his substitute, which, under the rules he had been shut out from doing until the original substitute had been voted upon. The Sutherland declaration differs radically from the Norris-Simmons compromise in that it "asserts" the rights of the United States instead of merely "reserving" them.

The substitute was tabled. The vote on the compromise amendment followed a debate that had run from 11 o'clock in the morning until almost seven o'clock at night. During that time speeches had been made by Senators Newlands, Lea of Tennessee and Reed of Missouri, the latter vigorously opposed the pending amendment and criticized the repeal bill.

After further short speeches Mr. Williams moved to lay the Sutherland amendment on the table. This prevailed by a vote of 49 to 33.

The senate then by a vote of 47 to 39 defeated the Simmons amendment. Attempts will be made today to put through other amendments regarding American rights as to toll exemption and American sovereignty over the canal, but the repeal forces are believed to be sufficiently strong to dispose of them in short order and pave the way for the passage of the bill itself.

There were several expressions during the debate of a desire to submit the dispute with Great Britain to arbitration after the repeal bill is passed. It has been currently reported in the senate for several days that an arbitration resolution will be pressed after the passage of the bill. One fact that was noticed was the absence of Senator Root, the acknowledged leader of the Republican senators who favor repeal.

Senator Lodge announced that the New York senator was out of the city, but it is probable that he will return in time to cast his vote for the bill.

HOLDS BABY IN HIS TEETH

Reading (Pa.) Man Risks Life to Rescue Child.

Reading, Pa., June 11.—Holding a two-year-old child in his teeth by her dress, Stephano Circelli bore her to a place of safety from the high bridge of the slag dump of the old Empire furnace here, while a gaping crowd watched the rescue 100 feet below. The child had crawled out on the bridge and clung there, seemingly paralyzed with fear. The parents were unable to reach their little one, and they stood below shouting advice to the unheeding child. The parents hugged and kissed Circelli after the rescue.

COLONEL'S SON WEDS

Miss Belle Willard Becomes Bride of Kermit Roosevelt.

Ceremony That Joins Ex-President's Son and Daughter of U. S. Envoy in Marriage a Brilliant One.

Madrid, June 11.—In the presence of a brilliant throng with the uniforms of diplomats and army and navy officers forming an attractive contrast with the elaborate gowns and jewels of the women, Miss Belle Wyatt Willard, daughter of Mr. Joseph E. Willard, the American ambassador to Spain, and Mrs. Willard, today became the wife of Kermit Roosevelt by a religious ceremony at the chapel of the British embassy.

Promptly on the stroke of high noon the bride entered the chapel leaning on the arm of her father. She wore a dress of ivory satin and tulle. There was a court train of considerable length. Her veil was of tulle and lace and her orange blossoms were also interwoven with rare lace.

Following her came the maid of honor, Miss Mary Elizabeth Willard, the sister of the bride. She wore white satin with a tunic of exquisite pale blue tulle.

The bridesmaids were clad in dresses of white tulle with tunic. They wore her serene highness, the Princess of Thurn and Taxis, Miss Katherine Page, daughter of Walter Hines Page, American ambassador in London; Mademoiselle Gilone de Veneurs de Tiliere and Miss Virginia Christian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew H. Christian, of Richmond, Va. They carried bouquets of yellow orchids and wore lace with touches of yellow ribbons tied under the chin. Mr. Roosevelt was dressed in conventional garb.

The Rev. Dr. Samuel N. Watson, pastor of the American Protestant Episcopal church in Paris, officiated. He was assisted by the Rev. Herbert Brown, chaplain of the British embassy in Madrid.

OGDEN'S FORTUNE $12,000,000

Eccentric Chicago Man Owned Property in Many States.

Chicago, June 11.—The fortune of Francis A. Ogden, the dead Chicago eccentric, is estimated at $12,000,000 by C. W. Ogden of Albuquerque, N. M., a nephew. Mr. Ogden left for Houston, where his uncle died, according to dispatches from Albuquerque. A conference of heirs is to be held in Houston as the search for a will is made. There are eight nephews and nieces. Deeds to real estate worth hundreds of thousands of dollars were found by the temporary administrators in his hotel room at Houston. The documents found show that Ogden owned land in a dozen states, including Indiana, Texas, Louisiana, Wisconsin, Missouri, Tennessee, Illinois, Minnesota, Arkansas, Washington, New Mexico, Arizona, South Dakota and Oregon. The coroner announced that Mr. Ogden's death was caused by heart disease.

SALVATION ARMY MEET ON

Two Thousand Delegates at International Congress in London.

London, June 11.—The shadow of the Empress of Ireland tragedy rested like a pall today on the two thousand delegates representing nations speaking 34 tongues, who gathered here for the Salvation Army international congress. About a hundred Canadian leaders lie dead, a majority still at the bottom of the St. Lawrence, and many of them had a host of friends among those who crowded into the great temporary building on the Strand today.

Scarcely a nation in the world lacked representation in the throng of delegates. Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, the West Indies, India and Ceylon, Japan, Korea, the Dutch Indies, continental countries and the United States had contingents.

MILITANT IS SEIZED

Miss Pankhurst Taken as She Heads Parade.

Suffragette's Arrest Ends Charge on Home of Premier Asquith—Women Fail to Fight for Her.

London, June 11.—Sylvia Pankhurst's boast that her East End Dockers Army would fight for her protection has proved to be without avail. The procession which she organized to march on Premier Asquith at Westminster turned out to be a fiasco, and the leader of the militants is again in Holloway jail.

Nearly ten thousand persons gathered at the junction of Commercial road and High street, Whitechapel, to see the procession start. Miss Pankhurst was carried by four sturdy men, and the parade was headed by Rev. Mr. Wills. A band played the "Marseillaise."

The parade had gone scarcely a mile when the police by a sudden maneuver arrested Miss Pankhurst and whisked her away to jail in a taxicab followed by a few shrieking women. The paraders continued for a time but soon were dispersed by the police.

Strong condemnation of militancy by the Women's Liberal Federation is considered indicative of the waning of "the cause."

Home Secretary McKenna had an audience with the king at Buckingham palace with the object, it is generally believed, of acquainting the king with the measures the government is taking to defeat the militant agitation.

Serious disorders occurred at Portsmouth where traveling parties of suffragists in an attempt to hold meetings met with such hostility from the populace that they had to be protected by the police. Their platforms were overturned and they were chased by a mob.

REBELS MENACE ROAD

Funston Fears Huerta Troops Will Attack City.

Carranza Forces Reported Planning to Thwart Dictator's Effort to Escape.

Washington, June 11.—Railroad communication between Mexico City and Vera Cruz is menaced by constitutionalist forces and there are persistent rumors of a contemplated attack by Huerta soldiers on the Americans holding Vera Cruz, said a report made to the war department by Brigadier General Funston, in command at Vera Cruz.

There are about three thousand rebels in the state of Vera Cruz. Their purpose in planning to cut the rail road from the capital to Vera Cruz and also to Puerto Mexico, say constitutionalist agents in Washington, is to cut off all possible means of escape for Huerta and his cabinet members if they attempt to leave the capital in flight.

General Funston said the rumors of an attack on Vera Cruz could not be ignored, but the war department was not alarmed. Galveston, Tex., June 11.—No instructions to hold up the ammunition consigned to the constitutionalist forces at Tampico and on board the Morgan liner El Sud have reached local customs authorities. The El Sud arrived.

REMARKABLE
CASE of Mrs. HAM

Declares Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her Life and Sanity.

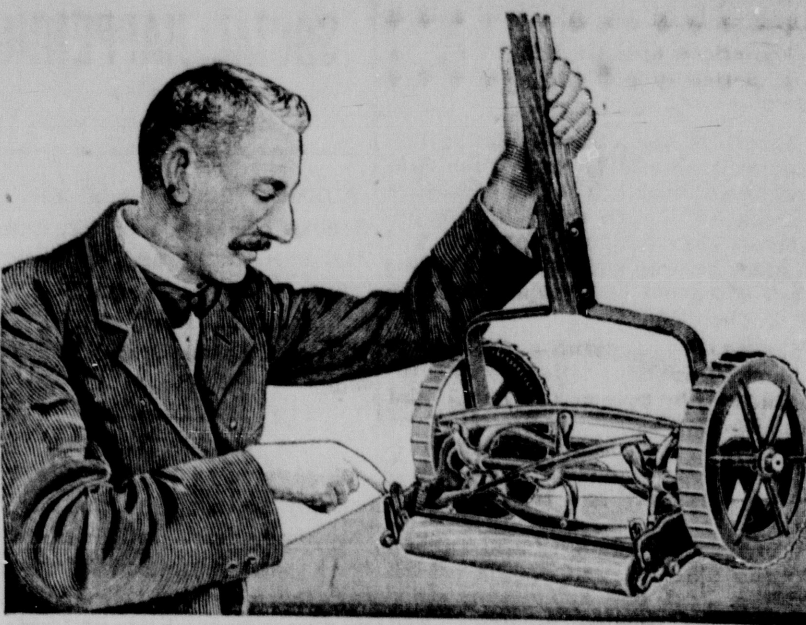

Shamrock, Mo.—"I feel it my duty to tell the public the condition of my health before using your medicine. I had failing, inflammation, female weakness, pains in both sides, backaches and bearing down pains, was short of memory, nervous, impatient, passed sleepless nights, and had neither strength nor energy. There was always a fear and dread in my mind. I had cold, nervous, weak spells, hot flashes over my body. I had a place in my right side that was so sore that I could hardly bear the weight of my clothes. I tried medicines and doctors, but they did me little good, and I never expected to get out again. I got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier, and I certainly would have been in grave or in an asylum if your medicines had not saved me. But now I can work all day, sleep well at night, eat anything I want, have no hot flashes or weak, nervous spells. All pains, aches, fears and dreads are gone, my house, children and husband are no longer neglected, as I am almost entirely free of the bad symptoms I had before taking your remedies, and all is pleasure and happiness in my life."

Halsey of a Viola township met in the banking rooms of the local bank on Saturday morning where they were paid the balance of the damages due them by the Inlet swamp drainage district for work through the township by dredges now digging ditches there. The Farmers' Elevator company shelled their ear corn in the cribs along the railroad tracks west of the city this week. The crib was filled with corn from the field and weighed at 70 and 75 pounds to the bushel in the ear. It was shelled out and weighed 56 pounds to the bushel and according to the books of the company the grain fell short just 16 bushels. Dixon People Have Good Reasons For Complete Reliance.

Do you know how—
To find relief from backache;
To correct distressing urinary ills;
To assist weak kidney?
Your neighbors know the way—
Have used Doan's Kidney Pills;
Have proved their worth in many tests.

Here's Dixon testimony.
N. W. Beale, 620 College avenue, Dixon, Ill., says: "For a long time I had kidney trouble and it showed itself in various ways. I had rheumatic twinges and my back was stiff and lame and when bending over, I could hardly straighten. When I was suffering intensely, I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Leake Brothers Company Drug Store. They gave me wonderful relief in a short time and I still use them, keeping my kidneys in good shape. All I said in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills one year ago, holds good and I am glad to confirm that statement."

Price 50 cents, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Beale had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

PRINCE LEARNING TO FARM

Nephew of Queen Alexandra is Thoroughly Grounding Himself in Agricultural Work.

Prince Eric of Denmark, a nephew of Queen Alexandra, is living the simple hard working, hard playing life of an English farmer's son at Fairford, in Gloucestershire, according to a London correspondent of the New York Herald. His father is Prince Waldemar, Queen Alexandra's youngest brother.

He is a third son, and destined, like the sons of English royalty, for a sphere in agreement with the tastes and pursuits of his country. In Denmark these are farming. So twenty-year-old Prince Eric is learning wheat growing, cattle raising, dairy farming and pig keeping in the British way, which the Danish minister of agriculture most admires.

On any day Prince Eric may be seen at work like a farmhand. Fairford folk were eager to fete him and spoil him, but his hours of leisure are passed with the farmer's family or on an excursion to a football match, for the prince is an ardent footballer, or on a family call to see Queen Alexandra at Sandringham, at none of which he is in danger of being spoiled.

Denmark's minister of agriculture, who counseled this life for Prince Eric, allows his own daughter to be general servant to a middle class English family, that she may be practically expert in household duties and so avoid the pitfalls before the mere theorist.

CUBANS ALL LOVERS OF EASE

Favorite Postures Are Those of Indolence in Furniture Specially Adapted for Comfort.

In walking through the streets of Cuba one would be greatly entertained by glimpses through the large windows of what is going on in the parlors of the different residences. Sometimes could be seen only a sight of small hands clasping the bars of the grate and the dusky faces and dark eyes peeping into the street through the curtained windows and scanning the passersby. Then again the whole room could be seen with its furniture and ladies sitting in languid postures enjoying the breeze as it entered from without. They love to recline on sofas; their houses are filled with rocking chairs imported from the United States, and they are fond of sitting in chairs tilted against the wall, as we sometimes do at home. In Cuba they have invented a kind of chair which, by lowering the back and raising the knees, places the sitter precisely in the posture he would take if he sat in a chair leaning backward against a wall. This is, indeed, a luxurious and comfortable attitude and it is not to be wondered at that it is a favorite with lazy people, for it relieves one of the trouble of keeping the body straight.

Deserved Rise to Fame.

Louis Ritman, whose paintings are attracting attention, is a young Russian who received his first training at Hull house, Chicago, and has advanced in spite of many obstacles. A child of very poor parents, he became a protégé of Hull house, studied in the drawing classes there and showed such remarkable talent that at the age of fourteen he obtained work in a sign painter's shop in the neighborhood. His father was out of work, and for a time the boy was the sole support of the family. Then he began to study at the Fine Arts academy. The first year he won a scholarship entitling him to two years' free tuition. Paris became his goal. He scraped together enough money for the fare and arrived in Paris penniless. Lawton Parker befriended him, and Ritman's work immediately attracted attention in Paris. He exhibited at the salon.

The Poor Dividend Payers.

Ex-Gov. Morgan G. Bulkeley, apropos of the courts' refusal to authorize the New Haven railroad's new bonds, said in Hartford:

"Too many of our financiers are like Mr. Munney.

"An aviator, after giving Mr. Munney a superb flight in his machine, said:

"'Won't you come in with me on this, sir?'

"'No,' said Mr. Munney firmly, 'no, I won't. Your machine is swift, easy to manage and perfectly safe—in a word, it's practical. But it has no provision for strap-hanging passengers, and so I don't care to come in.'"

Gambling in France.

Statistics recently published have shown that the attempts of the law to discourage gambling in France by limiting the number of casinos and enforcing restrictions on players have tended only to increase the total of the money that annually changes hands on games of chance. Statistics dealing with betting on the races show a slight falling off. The racing public invested more than seventy-nine million dollars in bets at the booths of the official pari-mutuel in 1913, as against $81,000,000 in 1912, which was the highest total ever bet in a single year. Gambling in clubs is, however, increasing year by year.

Fame and the Press.

Senator Root, apropos of the power of the press, said in Washington, the other day:

"'Father, what is fame?' I heard a little boy ask in a smoking car.

"'Fame, my son,' the father strikingly replied, 'is the reward a man gets for being affable to journalists.'"

Dixon is growing; so is the Dixon Loan and Building Association. Many people desire to buy or build homes and want us to furnish a part of the money. We want to help them out. We are anxious to increase the sale of investment stock, so that we will have more money to make new loans. Our plan appeals particularly to wage earners. We recently abolished the membership fee. There's nothing to pay but the monthly dues, which amount to from 50c to 50 Dollars, depending upon the amount of stock carried.
